

SASKATCHEWAN ORDER OF MERIT

1 9 9 3

Introducing...

Chief Samuel Bunnie, one of the recipients of the 1992 Saskatchewan Order of Merit.

Samuel Bunnie is Chief of the Sakimay Indian Band, near Grenfell, Saskatchewan.

He has worked tirelessly for the band, the last eleven years as chief. His many accomplishments include securing financing, developing recreational facilities and helping settle a land claim.

Samuel Bunnie has assisted in raising the standard of living, educational opportunities and quality of administration of the Sakimay band and other Indian bands of the Yorkton District.

The Order of Merit is Saskatchewan's highest honour, bestowed in recognition of such efforts.

Nomination forms are available from:

Saskatchewan Order of Merit
Protocol Office
10th Floor,
1919 Saskatchewan Drive
Regina, Saskatchewan
S4P 3V7

Chief Samuel Bunnie.
1992 recipient of the
Saskatchewan Order of Merit.

Look around. Do you see someone who has made a real difference by showing excellence in the arts, business or professions, agriculture, research, community leadership or volunteer service? People who give of themselves deserve recognition. Nominate someone you know for the Saskatchewan Order of Merit.

While nominations are accepted throughout the year, the deadline for this year's recipients is June 18, 1993.

