

PAUL ACOOSE IS TIRED OF RACING

Toronto, Ont., March 28.—

Paul Acoose, the western Indian satisfied with having defeated Tom Longboat, says that he is tired of racing and will quit the track for good in the fall. Besides winning a good purse on Saturday, the westerner also won a gold medal donated by the Six Nation's Indians. Acoose has a number of races future dates, among them a big event in New York, early next month, in which all the stars will complete.
