

TOM LONGBOAT TO RUN PAUL ACOOSE

Famous Indian Runners Come to
Terms For Race in Toronto
Next Friday Night.

Toronto, Ont., March 4.—The wrangling which has attended the negotiations for a race between Paul Acoose and Tom Longboat has been renewed, with the result that Manager Staples and Sol. Mintz arranged a race, which will be promoted by Tom Flanagan.

The distance will be fifteen miles, and, as Sol. Mintz would not race without a side bet, the Grenfell man accommodated him.

Acoose said that he was almost afraid to go back to his tribesmen without running Longboat, and would have stayed down here six months, if necessary, to get the race with the "Big Chief." The date is Friday next and the scene Riverdale rink, Toronto.

As a preliminary, Percy Sellen will run three miles against Don McCuaig, of Hamilton, whom Billy Sherring picked some time ago to take the place now claimed by Fred Meadows as world's champion middle-distance runner.
